worth) and Frank, married Virginia Buckley.

James died Sept. 16, 1957, at Redondo Beach, California. He also is buried there.

James grew to manhood in Center, where he went to school and helped his father on the farm. In later years he and his father and brother Bennett raised sheep. Their lambs were shipped to Kansas City and they always received top market price for them. When his sons Bruce and Frank went to California, James sold his interests to his brother Bennett and moved west. He worked with his sons in the contracting business until his retirement.
